Greeting Fellow Knights!

As we head into the Advent season and prepare for Christmas we are grateful that we have a change to celebrate the 50th anniversary of our Knights chapter. It is quite an accomplishment for any organization to be around for 50 years.

The Knights working on the project have taken great steps to make sure it will be a very special night, and I hope all those who can will be able to attend. It is nice that during the holiday season we are able to also celebrate our own Chapter's founding.

We will also have our normal meeting on the 20th as we still have plenty of things we are working for in 2008. Please attend if you are able to.

In this Holy Day season I wish all the Knights and their families God's Blessings!

'For to us a child is born to us a son is given,
and the government will be on his shoulders.
And he will be called
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.'
Isa 9:6

Yours in Faith,
Grand Knight Chad Feldmann

MERRY CHRISTMAS

I would like to extend to you and your family my sincere best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a holy happy holiday season.

We can all remember the story of Scrooge and his failure to believe in the spirit of Christmas. To all but the Scrooges of the world, the celebration of the birth of Christ brings with it a warm feeling of family ties, a joy and pleasure that our faith brings to others.

That same warm feeling also comes from sufficient family protection. Just knowing that, because of what you have planned, your loved ones will have joys and comforts for years to come if something happens to you brings a warm satisfying feeling.

I don't think Scrooge would have believed in family protection either. But men of good will do and the world is a better place because of them. They know that family protection is absolutely necessary to provide comfort and security to their family for the immediate future and is also a gift that will provide for their loved ones for years to come.

I want to wish you a blessed Christmas and all the best for the New Year!
